

CICC HONORS INDIVIDUALS FOR OUTSTANDING SERVICE

It's rare that an organization can ever do too much to acknowledge and reward the individual efforts of the members who go the extra mile to make the organization strong and effective. As CICC prepares to head into its 30th year, we were pleased to salute Bryant Fischback, Dow Chemical Co (retired) who was one of CICC's early pioneers. Bryant was presented with an award for his lifetime achievement promoting the use of good science in public policy. Bryant's service to CICC predates its Sacramento roots.

Suzanne Iyer, Clorox and Arzell Hale, Searles Valley Minerals were also honored for their outstanding contributions to CICC's success. CICC General Manager Bill Hegland and Sr. Consultant/Advocate, John Ulrich made the presentations

Suzanne Iyer, Clorox, accepts an award for her outstanding personal efforts to promote chemical plant security and the protection of critical infrastructure information.

Bryant Fischback accepts CICC Lifetime Achievement Award

Arzell Hale, Searles Valley Minerals, is honored for his outstanding personal efforts and enthusiastic support of CICC legislative grassroots

